The Amazone collection was born in 2018 from a new collaboration between Jean Delisle and Nicolas Aubagnac. Ode to the material for which the designer was inspired by lianas and the roots of large tropical forests by reinterpreting their amazing textures. Each model is a plant structure like a mangrove combining complexity of lines and power of bronze. A set of three sconces comes like sculpted corollas springing from each other. A gueridon and a table lamp carefully carved like the bark of a tree complete this collection. Each piece is signed with an original double stamp: that of the creator and that of Maison Delisle.
